6 Cancellation Rights

- 6.1 Consumers may have rights to cancel their contract with us. If you are acting for purposes outside your trade, business, craft or profession, you are likely to be a consumer. If you are a consumer you may have a legal right to cancel our contract with us for a period of 14 days starting on the day the contract is formed. You are likely to have this right if we take instructions from you outside of our offices or at a distance, for example online or over the telephone. If you request us to start work during the first 14 days of our contract you will have to pay us for any work we do up to and until you cancel together with any applicable VAT and disbursements we have incurred on your behalf but any other sums you have paid for our costs will be refunded to you.
- 6.2 You will lose this right to cancel if you have expressly requested we provide services during the cancellation period and they have been fully performed before you inform us of your intention to cancel.
- 6.3 To cancel your contract with us please contact the lawyer responsible for your matter in writing stating that you wish to exercise your right to cancel the contract in accordance with this paragraph.

7 Joint Clients

- 7.1 Where you instruct us jointly with another person or entity your right to confidentiality and your ownership of our file is joint and common, and we will be obliged to share with your joint client(s) all information that you give to us and any instructions that you provide to us. This will remain the case after your contract with us has ended. The protection of 'legal privilege' will be retained by you jointly.
- 7.2 We may agree with you that one of you may give instructions on behalf of you all, however you may revoke your consent to such an arrangement at any time and require us to seek instructions from you all. Where such an arrangement is in place we reserve the right at our absolute discretion to require confirmation of instructions from all of you where we consider it appropriate to do so.

- 7.3 If you require information or documents held by us on the conclusion of our contract with you, we can provide any one of you with such information or copies of documents without the consent of your fellow joint clients, but we can only release original documents on receiving instructions from you all.

8 Conflicts of interest

- 8.1 Our professional rules prevent us from acting where there is a conflict of interest, or a significant risk of a conflict of interest arising, between:
- 8.1.1 us (or one of our lawyers) and a client;
  - 8.1.2 two (or more) of our current clients (save in certain, limited circumstances which we will discuss with you where applicable);
  - 8.1.3 joint clients; or
  - 8.1.4 our professional obligation to keep current or former client information confidential and our professional obligation to act in your best interests and inform you of anything that relates to your matter.
- 8.2 We conduct screening before accepting instructions from clients to identify situations where a conflict exists or there is a significant risk of a conflict arising, but in some cases a conflict or a significant risk of a conflict can arise at any stage of a matter through no fault of ours or yours.
- 8.3 You must tell us immediately if you become aware of circumstances that might give rise to a conflict of interest in relation to your matter.
- 8.4 Where we are acting and a conflict of interest arises, or we identify a significant risk of a conflict of interest arising, we are likely to have a regulatory obligation to cease acting for you and our contract with you will be terminated accordingly.
- 8.5 Where you instruct us together with one or more joint clients and a conflict arises between you (for example because you disagree on your instructions to us or because a change in circumstance means that the outcome you have been jointly pursuing becomes less beneficial to one of you than the other), you must inform us immediately. If the issue is capable of resolution we may pause acting whilst you each seek independent legal advice to resolve the matter. Otherwise, we may be obliged to cease acting for both of you and our contract with you will be terminated accordingly.
- 8.6 Where our contract with you is terminated due to a conflict of interest arising, we shall be entitled to raise an invoice and be paid for the work we have undertaken up to the point of termination.

We will be entitled to rely on any advice and information you receive from your own advisers or investment managers and shall not be under any obligation to verify the accuracy of such advice or confirm that you have met your reporting obligations. We may ask you to confirm your reporting status, for instance by requesting your Global Intermediary Identification Number.

- 9.9 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, our advice and any documents we prepare are for use only in connection with the specific matter on which we are instructed, can only be relied on by you; and reflect the law in force at the relevant time.
- 9.10 Our contract with you and our duty to advise you will cease upon the completion of the work detailed in our Client Engagement Letter (or the termination of our contract with you as provided for in these Terms of Business). We will not be responsible for reminding you of important dates and/or deadlines or updating you on changes to the law which may arise after the completion of your matter.
- 9.11 Unless otherwise agreed with you, our engagement does not include providing a formal legal opinion letter or audit letter to you or any third party. If we agree to do so, we will charge you for any costs that we incur in relation to any such request.

10 Our Liability to You

- 10.1 Your contract is solely with Weisberg Legal, which has sole legal liability for the work done for you and for any act or omission in the course of that work. No representative, member, officer, employee, agent or consultant of us will have any personal liability to you and you agree that you will not bring any claim against any such person in respect of or in connection with services provided to you under your contract with us or otherwise. In this regard each and every representative, member, officer, employee, agent or consultant of us shall be entitled to the benefit of this provision under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
- 10.2 Unless explicitly agreed otherwise, in writing we do not owe, nor do we accept, any duty to any person other than you; and we do not accept any liability or responsibility for any consequences arising from reliance on our advice by any person other than you.
- 10.3 We are not responsible for any failure to advise or comment on matters falling outside the scope of our instructions, as set out in these Terms of Business and the Client Engagement Letter.
- 10.4 We will have no liability for any consequences arising from:
- 10.4.1 our reliance upon information provided to us by independent third parties (including but not limited to the results of searches carried out with statutory registries such as HM Land Registry and Companies House) and our online Know Your Customer and Risk Profiling providers where such information is subsequently shown to be inaccurate or incomplete;
  - 10.4.2 any delay or failure to provide services to you where that delay or failure is caused by circumstances beyond our reasonable control;
  - 10.4.3 any fraudulent misrepresentation made by a third party (other than our sub-contractors) including, without limitation, any representation relating to property value, ownership or the identity of a party to a transaction, provided we have acted with reasonable care in relation to such representation;
  - 10.4.4 your use of a method of communication with us that is insecure or not compatible with our systems (e.g. Text or WhatsApp);
  - 10.4.5 your use of AI Tools including but not limited to any errors, omissions, hallucinations or misrepresentations of our advice processed by AI Tools and any breaches of confidentiality or data protection obligations arising from your use of AI Tools;

- 10.4.6 the failure of any UK bank or building society regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) with which we have held a client account, or the freezing or rejection of any funds you pay at our direction into our client account, or any delay on the part of the bank operating our client account in releasing such funds; and
- 10.4.7 the termination by us of our contract with you on grounds permitted in these Terms of Business or the suspension of our services to you as permitted by these Terms of Business, or termination or suspension for any other reason permitted within these Terms of Business.
- 10.5 Our maximum liability to you (or any other party we have agreed may rely on our services) in relation to any single matter or any group of connected matters which may be aggregated by our insurers will be £3,000,000 including interest and costs. This is inline with the SRA requirements for firms such as ours.

- 10.10 Any liability we may have to you whether in contract or tort shall be limited to such an amount as would be just and equitable having regard to the extent of our responsibility for your losses as between you (including your directors, officers, partners, employees or agents), us and any other person with any responsibility for such loss. The inability of any co-liable person to meet a claim for any reason will not increase the amount of our liability and our liability will not be increased as a result of any exclusion or limitation of liability of any other liable person.
- 10.11 Please ask if you would like us to explain any of the terms above.

11 Our Charges and Billing

- 11.1 You are liable to pay legal costs as set out in the Client Engagement Letter, which also states the arrangements for billing. We will usually discuss this with you at the outset of your matter.
- 11.2 We comply with the SRA rules on costs transparency and a majority of our routine work is "fixed fee" as set out in our published costs. These will be detailed in our Client Engagement Letter and are also available for comparison purposes on our website.
- 11.3 Our charges are based upon an hourly rate charge for the time spent by our lawyers. Short letters, emails and routine phone calls are charged at a minimum of 1/10 of an hour (i.e. one six-minute unit). All other work is timed in six-minute units and charged at the relevant hourly rate. Our hourly rates are set out in our Client Engagement Letter and on our website.
- 11.4 We will deliver our bills to you electronically unless you let us know that you have alternative requirements.
- 11.5 Our bills become due for payment immediately after you receive them.
- 11.6 Please inform us if you would like a third party to be responsible for paying our bills or any part of them. We must approve this in advance and we will need the party's name, contact details and any other information or identification documents we request. It is your responsibility to pay our bills even if someone else has agreed to pay some or all of them, or has a legal obligation to pay your legal costs (or you believe will ultimately become obliged to do so), and our bills will still be addressed to you. If someone else does pay some but not all of our legal costs, you are responsible for paying the rest.

11.7 If you instruct us jointly with someone else you will be jointly and severally responsible for the full amount of our legal costs.

11.8 We reserve the right to make additional charges to you in respect of:

11.8.1 any non-routine disbursements or expenses incurred on your behalf to include the cost of travelling, conference facilities, courier charges and banking charges which will normally be charged at cost; and

11.8.2 any costs incurred in undertaking identity verification, anti-money laundering checks, screening, source of funds and source of wealth enquires and any other enquiries we are required to make under applicable laws and regulations.

11.9 We may, at any time, ask you for a reasonable sum to hold on account of incurred or anticipated fees or disbursements (e.g. land or probate registry fees, court fees, experts' fees), out-of-pocket expenses or the costs of a third party where you are liable to pay these. We have no obligation to make or commit ourselves to incurring such fees or making such payments unless you have provided us with funds for that purpose.

11.10 If a bill we have issued for fees and/or disbursements remains unpaid after 30 days from the date of the invoice we may:

11.10.1 charge interest on that overdue bill from the date of the invoice on a daily basis;

11.10.2 if you have engaged us in the course of your business, the interest rate will be in accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998, otherwise it will be at the rate applicable to judgment debts, both before and after any judgment;

11.10.3 11.9.3 charge an administration fee to cover our costs associated with recovering outstanding invoices in the sum of £50 per invoice per attempt; and

11.10.4 recover all expenses and costs incurred in enforcing our right to payment of such bills on a full indemnity basis.

11.11 Where any bill we have issued for fees and/or disbursements remains unpaid after 30 days from the date of invoice, or if our reasonable request for a payment on account of costs (whether for fees or disbursements) is not met, we reserve the right to:

11.11.1 terminate our contract with you; or

11.11.2 suspend acting for you temporarily until such time as payment is made in full (and you agree that we shall have no liability to you for any consequences arising from such suspension), and in either case we may exercise a lien and retain any papers, documents, funds or other property belonging to you in our possession until payment is made.

11.12 You have the right to challenge or complain about our bill. Please see section 21 (Complaints) for details of how to complain about our bill.

11.13 You have the right to challenge our bill by applying to the Court to assess the bill under the Solicitors Act 1974. The usual time limit for applying to the Court for an assessment is one month from the date of delivery of the bill.

16 Banking and related matters

16.1 Our client account

Unless agreed otherwise, we hold client money in accordance with the SRA Accounts Rules in various accounts with UK banks and/or building societies regulated by the PRA and FCA.

Our main client account is with C. Hoare & Co. Our reserve client account is with Arbuthnot Latham & Co., Limited.

16.2 Warning about changes to our bank details

- 16.3 We will not send you information about changes to our bank account details by email. If you receive an email purporting to be from someone at Weisberg Legal advising you of a change to bank account details please inform us immediately. Do not reply to the email or act on any information it may contain.

16.4 Payment of interest

Please ask us if you would like a copy of our Interest Policy but by way of summary:

- 16.4.1 We will pay a fair sum of interest to you on your client money which we hold on your behalf. This will be based on the rate set by our bank on an immediate access general client account. At the time of writing this is 0% (zero) (23/01/2026).
- 16.4.2 We will not pay interest on money we hold outside our client account or where the amount of interest is less than £20.

16.5 Payment of funds at the end of a matter

When the work we are undertaking has come to an end and we hold less than £20 in our client account, we may donate the money to a charity of our choosing without recourse to you. This is in order to save both you and the firm the administrative costs inherent in handling such small sums of money.

16.6 Bank failure and the Financial Services Compensation Scheme

- 16.6.1 We are not liable for any losses you suffer as a result of any bank in which we hold client money being unable to repay depositors in full. You may, however, be protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS).
- 16.6.2 The FSCS is the UK's statutory fund of last resort for customers of banking institutions. The FSCS can pay compensation up to £120,000 if a banking institution is unable, or likely to be unable, to pay claims against it.
- 16.6.3 The limit is £120,000 per banking institution per customer. If you hold other personal money in the same banking institution as our client accounts, the limit remains £120,000 in total. Some banking institutions have several brands. The compensation limit is £120,000 per institution, not per brand.

- 16.6.4 The FSCS also provides up to £1.4 million of short-term protection for certain high balances, e.g. relating to property transactions, inheritance, divorce or dissolution of a civil partnership, unfair dismissal, redundancy, and personal injury compensation (there is no financial limit on protection for personal injury compensation). This is called the temporary high balance scheme and, if it applies, protection lasts for a maximum of six months.
- 16.6.5 The FSCS (including the temporary high balance scheme) will apply to qualifying balances held in our client account. In the unlikely event of a deposit-taking institution failure, we will presume (unless we hear from you in writing to the contrary) we have your consent to disclose necessary client details to the FSCS.
- 16.6.6 More information about the FSCS can be found at <https://www.fscs.org.uk>.

16.7 Receiving and paying funds

- 16.7.1 We do not accept cash payments.
- 16.7.2 Funds required from you to complete a transaction should be paid by bank transfer from a source you have told us about in advance and which we have verified to our satisfaction. It takes 5 - 10 working days for a cheque to appear as cleared funds in our client account and so sufficient time must be allowed if you need to make such payments by cheque.
- 16.7.3 If we receive money in relation to your matter from an unexpected source (or cash has been accepted by our bank from you or another third party on your behalf), there will be a delay in your matter whilst we verify the source of those funds. We will charge you for any additional checks we decide are necessary and we may terminate our contract with you if either you or any third party whose cooperation is required fails to provide us with the information we need to verify the funds within an appropriate timescale. We will not be able to use or return any such funds until we are satisfied that they have been adequately verified.
- 16.7.4 Where we need to pay money to you, it will be paid by cheque or bank transfer to an account in your name. To comply with the SRA Accounts Rules we cannot make such payments to a third party. Please tell us immediately if you do not have a bank account in your name.

Depending on the matter we or you may have an obligation to report a transaction to HMRC.
- 18.4 Where we identify that there is a cross-border element to the engagement, we will be required to carry out an assessment as to whether the arrangement has features that would give rise to a reporting obligation.
